Grafton Precinct Changes

Every ten years, the legislature and local governments must redraw boundaries that take into consideration population, communities of interest, and state and federal constitutional requirements, amongst other factors. Population is determined by the most recent Federal Census. Grafton's population per the 2020 Federal Census is 19,664 which represents an increase of 1,899 from the 2010 population.

Part One: Local Re-Precincting

How will the results of the 2020 Federal Census impact the voters in Grafton?

In Grafton we will continue to have 5 precincts for local elections. (No Change). The precincts and polling places are below:

Precinct 1	Grafton Middle School	22 Providence Road
Precinct 2	Grafton Middle School	22 Providence Road
Precinct 3	Grafton Middle School	22 Providence Road
Precinct 4	Millbury Street Elementary School	105 Millbury Street
Precinct 5	Millbury Street Elementary School	105 Millbury Street

The precinct boundary lines have shifted slightly. Here is a link to the:
